

IPCC : The Edible oil Refining Co. Ltd.

B011

Energy Efficiency Measure

The company is continuously evaluating its energy consumption and looks to invest in energy-saving measures.

The company has recently invested in the installation of a quick-steam generator. This will allow more flexibility in operations and will significantly reduce energy consumption due to the fact that steam will only be generated as and when required.

The company is also undergoing an intensive programme to refurbish insulation on all major steam pipes.

Regarding administration block we are installing energy saving devices.