

DOC IPPC B3.2

EMISSIONS TO GROUND WATER FROM THE INSTALLATION.

All cooling water as well as process water used in the production of Acetylene is collected in watertight underground cisterns for recycling. This water is then transferred to the roof water storage vessel and reused for cooling purposes. In this regard there is no emissions to water table.