No. 539
CONSERVATION ORDER

Section 46 of the Development Planning Act, 1992

The Planning Authority believes that the following remains, namely

Ċittadella
Victoria, Gozo

(see site plan on page 5239) is of Archaeological, Historical and Cultural Importance such that the site has been listed as Scheduled Property in terms of section 46 of the Development Planning Act 1992.

The Authority also believes that the property is in need of conservation and is hereby issuing a Conservation Order in respect of the above site in accordance with section 46 of the Development Planning Act.

Whereas the fortifications, outworks and ruins of the Ċittadella are largely open to the public and visitor impact takes its toll on their state of conservation and whereas parts of the edifices on the site constitute a danger to passers-by:

(i) The fortifications and outworks within the scheduled area of the Ċittadella (as per site plan on page 5239), are to be maintained and conserved by means of a continuous maintenance programme;

(ii) The maintenance of the said site is exclusively the responsibility of the Government, namely the Ċittadella Restoration Unit within the Gozo Section of the Works Division;

(iii) Periodically the said division will inform the Planning Authority and the Museums Department of the part of the site or area which is to be conserved and preserved following site inspections as necessary;

(iv) Both parties will agree on the conservation methods to be employed in the particular case in point. The programme has to follow the criteria established by the Council of Europe and UNESCO in their Conventions, Charters and Protocols, to which Malta is signatory.

If the property is damaged or altered in contravention of this Order the Authority will exercise its powers of enforcement, as set out in sections 46, 52, 53 and 55 of the Act. The Act provides for severe penalties for contravention of control on Scheduled Property.
