

Word Search Competition

Instructions

Look for the missing letters that make up the 3-word phrase below

The hints are only on the prints that have a red sticker

Recite the phrase at the Reception desk to collect your gift

Good luck !

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

Hints

1. Use the 1st letter in the title of the Hippocampus sp. print.
2. Large colonies of this bird species nest in Malta. Find the 4th letter of the second word from the title.
3. These are ecologically important underwater habitats that are so fragile, they may be harmed by bubbles. Find the 3rd letter of the name of this habitat.
4. The habitat in the 'Untitled' print has two of these letters in its name. Use one of them.
5. Where do you find complex networks of animals, plants and other organisms? Use the 1st letter of the first word.
6. Find the print about Triton and take the 3rd letter in the second word of the title.
7. The scientific name of this species is Palaemon sp. Take the 2nd letter of this species' common name.
8. This is one of 23 cetacean species that have been recorded in the Mediterranean. Take the 1st letter of the first word in the title of this print.
9. This precious coral is a slow-growing organism. Take the 2nd letter of its colour.
10. Starfish, sea urchins, sea lilies, brittle stars and sea cucumbers all belong to this group. Use the final letter of the group's name.