Project Description – Riviera Area:

TV Series : Das Boot – Series III

Das Boot is a German television series produced for Sky One and a sequel to the feature film of 1981 also called Das Boot. Like the film, the series is based on Lothar-Günther Buchheim's 1973 book Das Boot, but with additions from Buchheim's 1995 sequel Die Festung.

As the original film's plot ends in December 1941, the series' setting takes place nine months later, in 1942. The storyline is split into two narratives, one based on land around the French Resistance, the other set around German U-boat U-612 and its crew. It brings a period from the not too distant past to a new audience and aims to show as factually as possible what the WW2 period was like.

Series I and Series II have been critically acclaimed and well received by audiences around the world.

While both these series have already filmed in Malta in the last few years, this was restricted to work at the film studios, but this time round a number of Malta locations are planned to be used.

Filming is planned to be shot during daylight hours; therefore, no artificial lighting is required. Only existing sun-light with the possible assistance of hand held reflectors will be necessary. Furthermore, there will be the need for camera equipment, recording equipment – no playback/or any other loud artificial sounds.

- No preliminary preparation on site is planned. Props will only be limited to beach related objects such as umbrella/ beach towel/buckets/spades/etc. One existing rock on site measuring approximately 60*50*40 cm will be aligned for shooting and repositioned into its original location once day is over.
- Actual shoot is currently planned for 1st March – weather permitting
- Total amount of crew/actors envisaged to be onsite during production/shoot, is circa 60 persons. Only circa 8 actors will be down on the beach during shooting and rest of the crew will be in the parking lot which in turn will be used for all film related vehicles.
