

Waste Sampling and Analysis

Brief description of services

With over 25 years in the environmental consultancy business, we specialise in waste management. We offer sampling and chemical analyses of waste samples, such as heavy metals, VOCs and others. We also carry out leachate testing on these samples. If required, we also carry out waste characterisation using the data collected, thereby determining whether the waste is hazardous or not.